girlgonegood® presents

SAFE S@LOHIKER

little habits with big impact

auvareness

- always let someone know your trail, route, and ETR (estimated time of return)
- choose a more popular trail if hiking solo
- hike in groups and/or bring your dog
- catch up to another group of hikers if someone creeps you
- have your phone on if there is cell reception
- consider an emergency spotter if no cell reception
- never disclose that you are alone
- do not hike with earphones in
- do not wander off trail
- if your gut tells you something is off, leave

prepareduess

- carry the 10 essentials
- carry bear spray and know how/when to use
- follow and practice Leave No Trace principals
- eat and drink even when you don't feel like eating and drinking the ten essentials

navigation headlamp sun protection first aid knife/gear repair kit	fire shelter extra food extra water extra clothes

golden rule

never post your location on social media until you've left the location

notes

"For safety is not a gadget but a state of mind." Eleanor Everet www.girlgonegood.com

agirlgonegood